

MONEY MONTHLY

September 2020

WWFCU News

Youth Checking

Have a teen old enough to be financially responsible, but not old enough to get a regular checking account? WWFCU now offers Youth Checking for teens age 15-17.

LEARN MORE

Build Credit with a Share Pledge Loan

Building credit can be difficult. An easy way to start building or rebuilding your credit is with a share pledge/share secured loan.

Read more

TOP WWFCU BLOG ARTICLES

3 Things to Consider Before Refinancing Your Home

Our country is experiencing historically low Interest rates right now. But before you rush to refinance your home, there are three things to consider.

READ ON

Save on Back-to-School Shopping

While this school year is an unusual one, one thing remains the same ... Our kids will need school supplies! Since back-to-school shopping is hard to avoid, we figured we'd give you a few ways you can save on supplies.

LEARN MORE

Which to Choose: Credit or Debit?

Credit or debit? Most of us are asked that question several times a week when using our debit card. But do you truly know what the difference is and which is the best choice for you?

GET THE DETAILS